

2019 INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

What is CoForce?

CoForce is a marketing and production agency focused on fully-integrated digital media campaigns. We work in a variety of industries: from IndyCar racing to solar, coffee, oil and telecommunications companies. Because our clients and events are all across North America, we travel a lot and have pretty varied schedules.

Internship Positions Available

Communications:

- This internship will largely be focused around public relations efforts for our clients in racing, learning from our full-time staff.
- You can expect hands-on experience with clients, communicating and fulfilling their needs through CoForce.
- For this role, you will need to be proficient in writing, be outgoing and willing to work alongside a variety of people and clients.

Video Production:

- This internship will be integrated with our video team and will give you the ability to help assist our videographers and producers on set and during events.
- You will also get the opportunity to edit your own videos and shoot on CoForce's video equipment.
- Proficiency in Adobe Creative Suite and experience with shooting and editing videos is required.
- An additional understanding of motion graphics will be a big asset, but is not required.

Graphic Design:

- This internship will embed you within CoForce's branding team, which handles everything from web design to social media graphics, corporate rebrands and merchandise design.
- This role will also tie into the social media efforts of our clients, so a passion and understanding of how to engage with followers will be important.
- Proficiency in Adobe Creative Suites and a generally creative mind is very important for this role.

What We're Looking For

- Highly self-motivated students with a passion for creative work
- Someone that's willing to adapt to changing work scenarios and tasks
- Someone that's willing and able to travel (mainly during weekends) from March-October

We've Got You Covered

- Compensation commensurate with experience
- All travel and lodging costs covered by CoForce to events that require travel
- Daily per diem if/when traveling
